

CODE OF CONDUCT

PIOI is an event open to all polytechnics and ITEs in Singapore. As such, participants can come from various schools and backgrounds. To ensure that all participants have a pleasant experience during the event, it is important that participants are respectful to each other as well as the helpers/organisers from the PIOI team.

The helpers from the PIOI team are expected to treat every participant with respect at all times. Similarly, participants are expected to treat the helpers with respect. Both participants and helpers from the PIOI team should conduct themselves with professionalism; protect confidentiality and restrain from cyberbullying when expressing their views or communicating with others. Verbal abuse and any other forms of harassment will not be tolerated.

As a general rule, do not:

- Make offensive jokes or remarks
- Give anyone unwanted attention, for example, by following them
- Photograph or record a video of anyone without their permission

Failure to adhere to the above will result in, and not limited to, immediate disqualification from the competition. By entering this contest, the participants are deemed to have agreed to be bound by the above code of conduct of this competition. This is an irrevocable condition of entry.
